Ref 00277 DGS

Thank you for your email sent to South East Commissioning Support Unit and forwarded to us on 02/02/15 where you requested information about Autism and learning difficulty commissioning.

We have searched our records and taken all reasonable steps to locate the information requested but have not been able to do so. The information you have requested is not available as we are unable to specifically drill down to the level of data that you have requested.